

No support for victims

I have just taken a relative to court for abusing me as a child. I found out today that he was found not guilty. The defence barrister was brutal when questioning me, to the point the judge had to step in. I was called a liar and my mothers recent death used as part of the defence. I cannot put into words how devastated I am he was able to walk away as if what he did to me didn't matter. I honestly thought justice would prevail, how naive of me.
