

Protective Child Services

My husband, the father of my daughter, chased my daughter down our driveway in his truck. He nudged her with the truck.

I lived in DV along with my children for 19 years.

Had called the police and had him arrested several times.

I had tried before to leave with the help of the local DV center and the courts, however, he retained an attorney, and suddenly it was all my fault.

However, after attempting to run her over, I went to the local DV center, again, the courts and DSS.

I was placed under intense scrutiny and had to jump through far too many hoops b/c CPS did not believe my son, who witnessed it, my daughter the victim or me.

We were victimized by him, and CPS.

The second time in the court system was a victory, I couldn't get legal aid. They gave me a packet detailing how I should "defend" myself in court.

I did REPRESENT myself in court and won custody and a protection order.

We do NOT give permission for posts published as personal experiences to be reproduced, translated or otherwise published elsewhere. We will not contact people who submit their personal experiences on behalf of journalists, bloggers or other third sector organisations. These testimonies remain the intellectual copyright of their authors and must be treated with the ethical guidelines used by academics for research involving human subjects. Our full guidelines can be read here.